28TH MISSION OF TRIBOLOGY RESEARCH

11 December 2019, One Birdcage Walk, London

THE INSTITUTION OF MECHANICAL ENGINEERS' TRIBOLOGY GROUP IS NOW INVITING PRESENTATIONS FOR ABSTRACTS FOR THEIR ANNUAL TRIBOLOGY RESEARCH SEMINAR.

Aimed at UK research groups concerned with improving the understanding of friction, wear and lubrication processes, this half-day seminar will enable you to meet with fellow researchers for a series of presentations and discussions on current aims and progress in this area.

The emphasis is firmly on the contribution of the rising generation of researchers, with targets and methods of approach equally as important as results and conclusions.

The meeting will shine a spotlight on the national economy and the gain of benefits in efficiency, reliability and cost in the operation of plant and equipment in key areas of tribology today.

HOW TO SUBMIT

Your abstract should outline the contents of a 15-minute presentation and should include the following information:

- Your full name and contact details
- A working title for your presentation
- A 50 word summary of the topic you intend to cover
- A 50 word outline of how your research can be applied to industry

Please submit your proposals before 8 November 2019 via email: eventconcepts@imeche.org

Alternatively contact us on +44 (0)20 7973 1251 or visit: www.imeche.org/events/TLE6967
